

5 Seconds Of Summer, Lover Of Mine

lover of mine
maybe we'll take some time kaleidoscope mind
gets on the way

hope and I pray darling that you will stay butterfly lies chase them away

dance around the living room lose me in the sight of you I've seen the red I've seen the blue take all of me

deep to where your secrets hide where we've been a thousand times swallow every single lie
take all of me
