

50 Cent, Still Will Kill

(Gun Shots)

(Chorus Akon)

Oooo dont even look at me wrong when i come through the hood
Aint nothing changed still holla at my homies
Oooo and when i hit the block i still will kill

Respect come from admiration and fear
You can admire or me or you can catch one in your wig
See the testorossa the toasta is right on my lap
So if a nigga get outta line a nigga get clapped

I got a arseanal an infatry im built for this mentally Thats why im the general i do what they pretend to do
Front on me now nigga ill be the end of you Forget your enemies and think of what your friends'll do

I drop a bag off, they let a mag off that ---- glock will tear half your ass off im not for the games im not for all the playin
the hollow tips rain, when i unleash the pain

Get the message from the lines or get the message from the nine
Paint a picture with words you can see me when I shine
Put my back on the wall nigga watch me go for mine
I let 21 shots off all at the same time (yeah)

(Chorus Akon)

Oooo dont even look at me wrong when i come through the hood
Aint nothing changed still holla at my homies
Oooo and when i hit the block i still will kill
And i dont want to, nigga but i will if i got to kill
If niggas get the fkin around
If niggas get the fkin around
(End Chorus)
