

911, Vision In My Mind

I lie awake in the heart of the night,
I just can't rest 'til you're by my side
Staring at the ceiling, scared to close my eyes
I gotta let you know you're the vision in my mind
So many lonely nights still as the pale moon light
Drift in a river of dreams, together, you and I
Flow forever, any tide of the motion
I will promise complete devotion
And love will never compromise
Something so sacred can't be denied

Chorus:

Gotta let you know you're the vision in my mind, girl
With heart and soul, every second of my time's for you
Been hurt before, I know you're holding back your feelings, girl
Please realize I'd be the one to change your world
I see that look in your eyes, been hurt just too many times
And like the healing hand of time
I'm gonna dry every tear you cry
I'd tear down the walls of isolation, oh, baby, believe I belong
The love is pure, the love is so strong
Give me the chance to prove I am wrong

Repeat Chorus twice

I lie awake in the heart of the night
Just can't rest 'til you're by my side
Staring at the ceiling, scared to close my eyes
I gotta let you know you're the vision in my mind
Repeat Chorus to fade
