

A$AP Rocky, Changes

Changes
I'm goin' through changes
I'm goin' through changes
I'm goin' through changes
I'm goin' through changes
Always changin' faces
I'm goin' through phases
I'm goin' through changes
Changes
I'm goin' through changes
All those changin' faces
I'm goin' through phases

So long since I've seen her, she can feel a change in me
Change, she could feel a change in me
So long since I've seen her, she can feel a change in me

Love comes with a price tag and a barcode
Still love you when we part though
Blame me like it's my fault
Still o-, still okay
Walk around like your heart cold
Hop around like your parkour
Still o-, still o-kay
Still o-, still o-kay
Still o-, still o-kay
Still o-, still o-kay (changes)
Still o-, still o-

Look, I got a text from this girl I used to see Sayin' that she chose this other guy with whom she wanna be with Look, I apologize, but this message fucked me up
Then I would skeet-skeet every girl after replying, "Best of luck to ya"
Fast forward couple months I'm like, "Wassup witcha?"
'Cause somethin' changed I know ya feel it (Feel it)
But really it's been a lil' minute
Ain't nothin' changed but the address
My neighbors hate how I be livin' (Livin')
Mad it's a loud rich nigga in the buildin'
Like fuck all the other tenants (Runnin')
Bought mines, boy, you rentin' (Runnin')
Rich niggas in their feelings (Runnin')
Bitch niggas in their feelings (Woo)
Bags packed, knapsack packed like I'm leavin' home
They ain't wanna let me go, I guess you need me more
I was on the road on tour (Tour)
She just said I changed for the worst (She just said I changed)
Rain flags, rain backs, fact guess you need it more
Had to let your heart go, I guess you need it more

I'm going through changes
Sweetest smile
Always changing phases
Upside down
I'm going through phases

Don't know if you love me or not

My biggest distraction is that I get distracted
People suing me for shit that didn't happen
I wonder how the world would be if they didn't have me
(Fuck this shit)
Wake up to my explore page
See my exes engaged, or either gettin' married
Or had a baby with some nigga
Or either three months, post-natal, postin' up that little nigga papi
I wonder if they really happy or just gettin' at me

So long since I've seen her, she can feel a change in me
Change, she could feel a change in me
So long since I've seen her, she can feel a change in me
So long since I've seen her, she can feel a change in me
Change, she could feel a change in me
So long since I've seen her, she can feel a change in me
