A New Found Glory Miscellaneous Sonny

I'm sorry I heard about the bad news today a crowd of people around you telling you it's ok and everything happens for a reason when you lose a part of yourself to somebody you know it takes a lot to let go every breath that you remember pictures fade away, but memory's forever an empty chair at all the tables and I'll be seeing you when all my days boil down but its better where you're going anyway I'm sorry I heard about the bad news today it's really hard to get through tough times and long days but it really just depends on the season when you lose a part of yourself to somebody you know it takes a lot to let go every breath that you remember pictures fade away, but memory's forever an empty chair at all the tables and I'll be seeing you when all my days boil down for now we'll say good bye we know it's not the last time I lost the best part of my day but its better where you're going anyway an empty chair at all the tables and I'll be seeing you when all my days boil down for now we'll say good bye we know it's not the last time I lost the best part of my day this is the last thing i will remember its better where you're going anyway
