

Act Fast, Reruns

Sometimes i
Feel my life
Has stopped before
It has begun
Nothing's changed
It's all the same
My life is just reruns

chorus
Sitting alone
In my room
Another wasted night
Another episode
Constantly repeated

Forever is my life
So I conclude that Reality bites

(look mom, I'm on tv!)
Don't know if I can cope
If everyone knows
When I am down
When I am low
Was it all a lie
My whole damn life
Was everything wrong
Was nothing right
