AJR, Hole In The Bottom Of My Brain

There's a hole in the bottom of my brain But when I party, the hole goes away But the party I throw Needs a picture to post So the world knows the party was great

There's a hole in the bottom of my brain
But when you like me, the hole goes away
So there's likes and hellos
On a post on my phone
Of a party I throw
In the hole in the bottom of my brain
This is how you do it, right?

Heads up I'm sorry to be that guy Heads up I'm looking to just get by Let's just say, let's just say we're fine

There's a hole in the bottom of my brain But when you love me, the hole goes away And the likes on my phone Yeah, they'll start to explode If I go and explode in L.A.

There's a hole in the bottom of my brain If I make money, the hole goes away Now there's a thing made of gold In a home that I own From a song that I wrote About likes and hellos On a post on my phone Of a party I throw In the hole in the bottom of my brain This is how you do it, right?

Heads up I'm sorry to be that guy Heads up I'm looking to just get by Let's just say, let's just say we're fine

Do, do, do, do, do, do, do Do, do, do, do, do, do, do Do, do, do, do Let's just say, let's just say we're fine

There's a hole in the bottom of my brain When I spend money, the hole goes away If I finally get clothes That are fancily sewn I could finally be ready for fame

There's a hole in the bottom of your brain When you get famous, the hole goes away Now there's coke on the nose Of a bro I don't know In a showroom of clothes That were fancily sewn In a town that I loathe On a coast that gets stoked On the thing made of gold In a home that I own

From a song that I wrote About likes and hellos On a post on my phone Of a party I throw But I know I'm alone No, I know I'm alone In the hole in the bottom of my brain
