Alan Jackson, It's About Time You Learned Abou

Well, I've been on the wrong side Of the front door too often Watched you slam it in my face Well I may learn the hard way I'm not a soft one Tonight I'm standin' in your place 'Cause you taught me a lot about leavin' Won't even have to try So here's your lesson in heartache and grievin' And a chance for you to cry 'Cause it's time you learned about good-bye I've stood behind you And I've laid beside you But I won't do that anymore 'Cause I'm tired of bein' Just here when you want me Tonight I'm walkin' out that door 'Cause you taught me a lot about leavin' Won't even have to try So here's your lesson in heartache and grievin' And a chance for you to cry It's time you learned about good-bye You taught me a lot about leavin' Won't even have to try So here's your lesson in heartache and grievin' And a chance for you to cry It's time you learned about good-bye Yeah, you taught me a lot about leavin' Won't even have to try So here's your lesson in heartache and grievin' And a chance for you to cry 'Cause it's time you learned about good-bye It's time you learned about good-bye It's time you learned about good-bye
