

Alessia Cara, The Use In Trying (piosenka z filmu)

Just a jump away
From where you want to go
But you're too afraid of Doing it alone

So getting half way there
Is all you've ever known
I've been down that road

Every day is like
You're playing in Different game
That you can never win

Hold your head up
Find your way home
You won't get
What you give sometimes*
