

Alice Merton, Lash Out

I can feel like on the back of my tongue all of the words getting trapped in my lungs heavy like a stone waiting for the river to run

I wanna lash out
I wanna let it out
cause I can feel it on the back of my tongue
on the back on my tongue

hard to hold this fire inside me
I know sometimes it's frightening
hard to hold this fire inside me
it's not really like me
to lash out
I gotta let it out
I wanna lash out
I wanna lash out

I've got something to say might start a riot rip that tape from my mouth I won't be quiet cause everything is nothing tell you realise it's something you want

I wanna lash out
I wanna let it out
cause I can feel it on the back of my tongue

to lash out
I gotta let it out
I wanna lash out
I wanna lash out

I can feel the cork come out of the bottle
I can feel the cork come out of the bottle
I can feel the cork come out of the bottle
lash out!
I wanna let it out!
