

Alle Farben & James Blunt, Walk Away

the last thing i recall was a question in my head some things we said don't make any sense

I can make myself real small pretend I;m sonwhere else leave you for a moment but there's no escape from myself

I wake up with sunlight in my eyes and finally as the sleep clears from my mind and once again I realize you still got something left to say except all back on I love you!

just cause you say /2x
there's too much water on the flames you can't break into what remains oh darling, walk away

you love me
that don't make it tru
because I've never seen the proof
and we should walk away
and we should walk away

I can ask you
How's your day?
I can sit with practiced warmth then we'll lie down again this bed of roms and we cross paths like ghosts in the hallway this beauty that I don't see the beauty in befoe me and example of a flower that's faded we're cazy the use phrases like, I love you!
