

Ana Andrzejewska, DOUBTS

there's always better way of thinking every day
and there's someone
whose excited if you fail

you will hear many wounds that's full of doubts in you

but it's a lesson
and you have to get it through every day can be the first

if you want change
every dream Chase

I know
always there's something good in bad when it's gonna be alright just don't forget

don't lose your head
some comes after every rain
