Anathema, The Lost Song - Part 3

Now that I found you Not gonna leave you World keeps on turning Spirit reflected My heart beats for you Outside my body

Tonight, in my mind's eye I need you to hold on

Promise the future Dreaming in colour Being together Spirit reflected Feeling is so real Beauty is endless

Tonight, in my mind's eye I need you to hold on

Found our guide Our souls in flight And time can heal Our scars concealed

'Cause love is what we are Our need, how far? Life will bring The truth in dream Our home Our home Our home Hold on!
