

Ancestral, Back to Life

Hey, don't look me cause I'm crying
You think i can't to die
I want to find my way back to life

I need to see another sign of fate...
Hide your pride and never kill again
I feel the taste of freedom close to me!

Ready to escape from twilight
I'll go back to life
My one dream, my only request
Far from the kingdom of war,
I'll go back to home
I live for my only desire

Hey, what do you think of death?
Seems like she's watching in silence
I want to find another reason of life
I need to feel your presence close to me!

Now, it's time to regain what I've lost
Still i'm searching, but truth will never come
Now i see your false smile
Waiting to leave for a new life
I'll forget all the evil I've seen

Ready to escape from twilight
I'll go back to life
My one dream, my only desire
Far from the kingdom of war,
I'll go back to home
I live for my only desire

Spread Your wings through the wind
So your time will come
They told you a lie, no one can know the truth
Don't be afraid, from the chaos you will rise again
Freedom is a word, no one can understand

From the anguish of night, to the morning calm
My dreams keep a live, (i come from evil)

From the anguish on night to the morning calm
It's time to regain what I've lost

Ready to escape from twilight
I'll go back to life
My one dream, my only request
Far from the kingdom of war,
I'll go back to home
I live for my only desire
