

Angra, Passing By

Home you go tonight
To break the sound of tears
Life's fading
To keep the world away
Is not enough to ease the pain
Time is passing by...
Time is passing by; I see it in your eyes
Fire burns inside
A light that's caught between
Night and day
Sun's been set to die
The supernova in your mind
Time is passing by
I see it in your eyes, I see it in your eyes
Time is passing by
I see it in your eyes, I see it in your eyes
They tell me all!
You can't deny
It's in your eyes

Visions disappear
Memories of a dream
Surrender
Give them to the wind
Deny your sorrow, live again
Time is passing by
I see it in your eyes, I see it in your eyes
Time is passing by
I see it in your eyes, I see it in your eyes
They tell me all
Time is passing by
I see it in your eyes, I see it in your eyes
Time is passing by
I see it in your eyes, I see it in your eyes
They tell me all!
You can't deny
You know you tell me lies
