

Ania Iwanek & Paweł Lucewicz, Don't Wanna Be

So I dont wanna go dont wanna be alone
I cant imagine I am livin' on my own
Even if I am scared to death
And I am out of breath
And it's really hard

It's so much safer when you don't expect too much I would do anything to stay and feel your touch
Even if I am scared to death
And I am out of breath
And its oh, so hard

Cant imagine I am standing here without you Dont wanna feel the empty air is all around, so Till you're here I'm falling, everything is calm
I dont wanna see me weak and full of doubt

So I dont wanna go don't wanna fight alone I imagine I am ready to let go and though I am scared to death ... i wanna make u stay be with u night and day

Cant imagine I am standing here without you Dont wanna feel the empty air is all around too

I imagine
I am ready
I can feel that I am strong And the shore is little closer and I'm beggin you dont go

I imagine
we are closer we don't know the pain anymore
I imagine
That i hear you i am finally on my own so I'm standing here and begging you to stay wanna feel the fear and do it anyway its been way too long I dont wanna go so I'm standing here and begging you to kiss me...
