

Anitta, Versions Of Me

All these versions of me

Locked you out the bedroom, I told you "Never come back"
And you said I smashed the window, it wasn't me, it was a maniac
And someone broke into your car in the night, yeah
Slashed the tire, left a letter up on the dash
It read, "I'm sorry, I get that I'm always bitter and sweet"
Baby, it was an insomniac

Baby, I swear you'll stay
Then I'm nowhere to be found when you wake up
Promise you no more pain
But maybe we should break up

I-I-I'm over the top
Don't really care if you li-like it or not
I'm in your mind and you're caught up in my drama
You want all these versions of me?
All these versions of me

I went and bought a white dress
I thought it would be funny to freak you out
And I promised you forever and you fall for the lies
It's weird, why do you like being traumatized?

Baby, I swear you'll stay
Then I'm nowhere to be found when you wake up
Promise you no more pain
But maybe we should break up

I-I-I'm over the top
Don't really care if you li-like it or not
I'm in your mind and you're caught up in my drama
You want all these versions of me?
All these versions of me
I-I-I'm a whole lot
Don't really care if you li-like it or not
You're terrified and you're caught up in my drama
You want all these versions of me?
All these versions of me (Oh, oh)

All these versions of me (Oh)
All these versions of me (Oh)
All these versions of me
You want all these versions of me?
All these versions of me
All these versions of me

I-I-I'm over the top (Over the top, yeah)
Don't really care if you li-like it or not (Oh, oh, oh)
I'm in your mind and you're caught up in my drama
You want all these versions of me?
All these versions of me (Oh, oh, oh)
I-I-I'm a whole lot
Don't really care if you li-like it or not (No, I don't care)
You're terrified and you're caught up in my drama
You want all these versions of me?
All these versions of me (Oh, oh)
