

Anne-Marie, Motherf*cker

I can feel the burn of your eyes in the back of my T-shirt
I'm guessing you're another one of those guys who don't like my style or neither
Tell me why don't I wear those dresses short
Or grow my hair down the back of my back

Well let me tell you
I don't do it like that
And that's that
Motherfucker

If you don't like the way I talk
You don't have to listen
And I will never be something I'm not
Just cause of your opinion
Say women should always have make-up on
To look good for the man

Well let me tell you
I ain't fucking with that
And that's that
Motherfucker
