

Anne Marie Sunshine, Nocny Ptak

(wersja angielska)

Closed in the dark I hide my pain
Because I know that in the rain no one will notice my tears

I breath in the gray air
I run away from the concrete fields/meadows
Far.. As far as possible

Because I am standing here way too long
But now I know, I don't want to dream in a cage

Because I am standing here way too long
But now I know, I don't want to dream in a cage

Me, Like a night bird
I still believe
That just like me
You will wake up one day
