Anne Marie Sunshine, Nocny Ptak

(wersja angielska)

Closed in the dark I hide my pain Because I know that in the rain no one will notice my tears

I breath in the gray air I run away from the concrete fields/meadows Far.. As far as possible

Because I am standing here way too long But now I know, I don't want to dream in a cage

Because I am standing here way too long But now I know, I don't want to dream in a cage

Me, Like a night bird I still believe That just like me You will wake up one day /2x
