

ANNEKE VAN GIERSBERGEN, I Saw A Car

I saw a car a really nice car
And i know this car wasgonna get me far
Flaming red runs liek a jet
And i don't get why it isn't mine yet

This car is gonna bring me home

I rely on my fear alone
Get by on my pain
I denny that i am to blame
For you to be down so low

I saw a man a really nice man
And to reel him in
I do whatever i can
A smile so bold not exactly old
And i don't really get
Why he isn't mine yet

This car is gonna bring me home

He's gonna save me

I say a bird a beautiful bird
If i could steal its wings
I would get what i deserve
I'll stand my ground high up in the clouds
And escape my responsibilities

I am 100% imprperfect
I am 100% alone
