Aqualung, Nothing Else Matters

If the chute doesn't open
If this plan doesn't work
Going down, down, down, down, down
Kinda great to know, as I take the stand
This is it, my one last chance

And everything's shattered Everthing's falling apart I'm lying in tatters Barely a beat in my heart But nothing else matters, oh

If a man is a sum of all that he's done Then I'm nothing much today And if it's true what they say And you are what you eat Then I'm nothing much today

And everything's shattered Everthing's falling apart I'm lying in tatters Barely a beat in my heart But nothing else matters, oh Nothing else matters

Going down, down, down Going down, down, down Going down, down, down Down, down Oh...
