Architects, Follow The Water

Drain the lake and bring it back to me

Can I blame it on you? I just can't win Two years spent wondering through the loneliest of minds Can't seem to find a good excuse this time, for me and for this to fall apart Shall I blame it on myself, or this routine that I've been stuck in? I've lost count of how many times I've tried to get out of this routine But it's holding so tight I just can't handle another day of this I just can't win Get me out alive Oh God, I mean it These are violent days for you and me I just can't handle another day of this routine Two years spent wondering through the loneliest of minds I've found my excuse this time Your words are wearing me down A constant frown upon my back Follow the water
