There, there must be An easier way To release these feelings So, so far from home I need your voice To hold my head together So, so far from home I need your voice To lift my lonely state of mind You, you can but wait for me to return For me to show you how I felt These wounds have bled And pages fly by I need to feel you right by my side So, so far from home I need your voice To hold my head together So, So far from home I need your voice To lift my lonely state of mind Oh there must be An easier way Oh there must be An easier way Oh there must be An easier way To release these feelings As the sea breeze hits my lungs It takes me back to where I belong To where I belong As the sea breeze hits my lungs It takes me back to where I belong To where I belong As the sea breeze hits my lungs It takes me back to where I belong To where I belong
