

Architects, Meteor

This should be heavenly, heavenly
Is there no remedy, remedy
Cause i've been baring blunt teeth
I am breathing heavily, heavily
I see a legacy, legacy that's sinking
Ih, it beggars belief

I am standing beneath the meteor
Disaster's breaking down my door
I should be moving mountains
The arrow buckles in the bow
They said it's time to go to war
I've heard it all before
I hould be moving mountains
But i am like a fire in the snow
