

Archive, All That I Have

There is no God
No reason to try
No heaven above to take me away from this hell

God is a thief
Took all that I had
Stole you from me
This hurt will never end

How can I deal with this loss
How can I deal with this loss
How can I deal with this loss

It's burying me
It's burning me
All that I have
All that I am is gone

Why make me live
Without a soul
How could I give anymore
I wish I could touch

Hold you again I could believe
Life love anything
All of my thoughts
All of my words they're gone

This God is a thief
Took all that I am
He stole you from me
This hurt will never end

How can I deal with this loss
