

Archive, Everything's Alright

Everything's alright
Everything's in sight
Everything's alright

Written in your blood
Now they've had enough
But everything's alright

It's such a shame
Now we're all to blame
We'll find with your eyes

We shine in your smile
We'll burn in your bile
And we die in your arms
But everything's alright
