

Arctic Monkeys, 2013

Well the times are so a'changing
Baby even when it's live
You can press pause and rewind
You knew it had to go amazing
But is this what you had in mind?
Oh there's nothing you can't find

It's two thousand and thirteen
All across the galaxy
It's two thousand and thirteen
Yeah

On the back of her transmitter
There's a little shiny fruit
And it's coming after you
As for instagram and twitter
She got caught in both pursuits

It's two thousand and thirteen
All across the galaxy
It's two thousand and thirteen
Yeah

So baby take a walk with me
Past flying cars and time machines
There's nothing that you won't believe, no

It's two thousand and thirteen
All across the galaxy
It's two thousand and thirteen
All across the galaxy
