Arctic Monkeys, 2013

Well the times are so a'changing Baby even when it's live You can press pause and rewind You knew it had to go amazing But is this what you had in mind? Oh there's nothing you can't find

It's two thousand and thirteen All across the galaxy It's two thousand and thirteen Yeah

On the back of her transmiter There's a little shiny fruit And it's coming after you As for instagram and twitter She got caught in both pursuits

It's two thousand and thirteen All across the galaxy It's two thousand and thirteen Yeah

So baby take a walk with me Past flying cars and time machines There's nothing that you won't believe, no

It's two thousand and thirteen All across the galaxy It's two thousand and thirteen All across the galaxy
