

Ariana Grande, In Your Hands

[Verse 1]

In your hands
I turn into something better than I am
I forget just where I end and you begin
Baby, I'm the only one that gave a damn
So take my hand

I wanna run
We could run like waterfalls and chase the sun
We could stay up late, so faded and get done
Baby, you're the only one I wanna love
So let's run

[Pre-Chorus]

My fingertips chase the silhouette of your skin
And all your lips taste like heaven but i'll taste them with gin
Body touch, won't you understand
In your hands
I'm in your hands

[Verse 2]

You're the paint, I'm the canvas
Gonna be just what I am
I'll be every masterpiece you ever made
I know I'm risky, I'm the risk you wanna take
Ain't no mistake

[Pre-Chorus]

My fingertips chase the silhouette of your skin
And all your lips taste like heaven but i'll taste them with gin
Body touch, won't you understand
In your hands
I'm in your hands
