Armaan Malik, Always - feat. Calum Scott

I don't need to fall asleep, it
Feels like I'm already dreaming
Pinch myself 'cause I still can't quite believe it
I'm falling in and out of love, I
Got so close to giving up, and
You walked in and you gave me all I needed

Broken hearts aren't hard to find
Thank God that you found mine

I tell you things nobody knows
You know that I'd die to keep you close
You're the closest thing to heaven
Oh
When you're lost, a little low
You know that you'll never be alone
If it all falls down to pieces
I'll be there
Always
Always
If it falls
If it all falls down to pieces
I'll be there

Falling for you way too often
We're dancing like nobody's watching
You got all my days and all my nights forever
I don't know where this life will take us
But there's beauty in amongst the chaos
Oh I'll be there for worse or for the better

Broken hearts aren't hard to find
Thank God that you found mine

I tell you things nobody knows
You know that I'd die to keep you close
You're the closest thing to heaven
Oh
When you're lost, a little low
You know that you'll never be alone
If it all falls down to pieces
I'll be there
Always
Always
If it falls
If it all falls down to pieces
I'll be there
Always
Always
If it falls
If it all falls down to pieces
I'll be there
