ARO, Shared Something With The Night

All the tjhings i see wasn't good to say to you Shared Something With The Night The way how the stars collapse over the moon

Livin' for you in my heart when i look at you i fall apart

You are so heavey for my soul My mind is everything i have you the hammer, ... some rest

i am just a silly girl lovin; you when you don;t exists

You are so heavey for my soul My mind is everything i have wishfull thinking makes my smile

Shared Something With The Night The way how the stars collapse over the moon and the feel is really dark

Livin' for you in my heart when i look at you i fall apart wishfull thinking makes my smile

Shared Something With The Night Shared Something With The Night Shared Something With The Night in my heart in my heart in my heart
