

Aslyn, Aint No Love

I wanna run and never get tired I wanna love the best i was wired I wanna know that i cant betray this be more than elated to be alive I wanna know that im taken care of know who i am is not about makeup i dont need caffeine or compliments fading cuz when im breathing it keeps me high cuz there aint no love we're sending we need somethin heavenly to believe cuz the further that we're gettin no anger will refuse to sleep erasing you and me so sun let your rays leave us inspired teach us that true love never expires and appreciate the things we've been given be happy to have or be a friend cuz there aint no love we're sending
to believe
erasing you and me
what this world doesnt need is this sappy song to sing but if it starts some thinkin its good enough for me cuz there aint no love we're sending
to believe
erasing you and me
there aint no love
no there aint no love we need something somethin heavenly
erasing you and me
there aint no love...
