

Ava Leigh, La La La

You make me so (la la la)
You make me go (la la la)
I lose control (la la la)
Do you wanna know? ((la la la)
Don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go

Verse1:

Promises baby, truth and lies
You mixed them up, 'til they were disguised
Two-faced you, I can see through you, through you
You make me so (la la la)
You make me go (la la la)
I lose control (la la la)
Do you wanna know? ((la la la)
Don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go
How can I lose what I never had?
You treated me good and yet so bad
I was happy, now I'm sad
'Cause I'm lonely
Two-faced you, I can see through you, through you
You make me so (la la la)
You make me go (la la la)
I lose control (la la la)
Do you wanna know? ((la la la)
Don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go
All this time I've been walking blind
But now I know that you were never mine
Gotta find the real me inside, here in your shadow I don't wanna hide no more
But I'm so lonely, I'm so lonely without you here
You make me so (la la la)
You make me go (la la la)
I lose control (la la la)
Do you wanna know? ((la la la)
Don't wanna let you go
Don't wanna let you go
