

Avalon, Arise

Buried in the ashes of the consequences
You've become again fallen
You wonder if there's hope at all to find the strength
To even crawl away from your pain
Then the voice of truth calls out to you
Stand up, I'm by your side
Arise
Arise
Mercy brings you to your knees
Forgiveness lifts you to your feet
In time you will find
Grace will reach your lowest low and never let you go
Arise
Arise
Arise
The past has kept you bound
But your sin can't keep you down
Arise, there's hope for you
Arise to the truth
Arise from your pain
Arise in Jesus' name
