

B.B. King, I Done Got Wise

I done made up my mind baby
There just got to be a change
Whoah, I made up my mind
Baby, there's just got to be a change
Oh, I think you're cheatin' on me baby
Oh, because you been actin' too strange

When I leave home early in the mornin' you're smilin' baby
And your face is never sad
Oh, when I leave home early in the mornin' mama
Your face is never sad
Yes, but when I have the day off and stay at home
Oh, I do believe it makes you mad

Oh, I know you think you're smart baby
And you think you're puttin' something over on me
Oh, I know you think you're smart baby
And you think you're puttin' something over on me
Oh, but I done got wise to you baby
And I ain't the fool that I used to be
