B.B. King, I Just Can't Leave Your Love Alone

You let me down All over town I guess by now I should be gone Yet here I stand Still in your hands Cause you're the best I've ever known

I try and try to say good-bye I just can't leave your love alone And after you what will I do I just can't leave your love alone

I walk away most everyday Don't need a love that hurts me so Then every night you get it right Until I'm moaning soft and low

I try and try to say good-bye I just can't leave your love alone And after you what will I do I just can't leave your love alone
