B.B. King, If You Love Me

If you love me You will give your heart Why should be apart If you love me

If you love me You will know the truth I wasn't born to lose And I love you

Affinity and communication That makes reality Understanding is the first thing It means so much to me

If I love you I will find the key If it's meant to be 'Cause I love you

Affinity and communication That makes reality Understanding is the first thing It means so much to me

If I love you I will find the key If it's meant to be 'Cause I love you
