

B.B. King, My Love Is Down

Don't you understand me, baby?
There'll never be no one else but you
Can't you understand me, baby?
There'll never be no other one but you
I loved you then and I love you now, baby
And no one else will ever do
Every time the sun goes down, baby
My love, my love comes down for you
Every time it rain, baby
My love it comes down for you
There ain't no other woman, baby
That can understand me the way you do
If you would only listen to me, baby
We would still be together today
If you would only, only listen to me, baby
We would still be together today
But instead of listening to me
You listen to everything other people have to say
Baby, please come home
There's nobody in your place
Aye baby, please come home
There's nobody in your place
Home is no home to me, baby
Without looking in your smiling face
Oh, I love you so much, baby
My love for you will never die
I love you, I love you, I love you so much, baby
My love for you will never die
And when it began raining, baby
My love is down like a [Incomprehensible]
