B.B. King, The Other Night Blues

Well I dream I heard you cry Babe, but I heard you call my name Well I dream I heard you cry, darling Babe, but I heard you call my name Well, it had to be you Baby, to call so lonesome and plain

The other night when we were lovin'
Babe, I held you in my arms
Yes, when we were lovin', darlin'
Babe, I held you in my arms
Well, you told me that you love me
And no-one else would do me no harm

Well, you told me a lie
Babe, and you told me goodbye
Oh, you told me a lie
Darlin', and you told me goodbye
Well now, it's all your worry baby
And you have no need to cry
