B.B. King, Walkin' And Cryin'

When I first met you, said you would be mine Found out later you was tellin' me a lie And now I'm walkin', walkin' and cryin' You don't love me no more

Now if there's one thing that I just can't stand Can't stand to see you with another man Because I'm walkin', walkin' and cryin' You don't love me no more

I did all for you, did all I could All I did darlin', it didn't do me no good And now I'm walkin', walkin' and cryin' You don't love me no more

Now I'm goin' on, goin' on my way I know you don't love me now darlin' But you will some old day Because I'm walkin', walkin' and cryin' You don't love me no more
