

B.B. King, Want To Get Married

I want to get married
But no woman will hear my plea
I want to get married
But no woman will hear my plea
Yes, it seems somehow
I can't get one to walk down the aisle with me
Well, I've only been in love
But three times in my life
Yes, the first, I couldn't satisfy her
But I've only been in love three times in my life
Yes, the second one was a juice head
And the third was another man's wife

Yeah, they say, join the navy
If you really wanna see the world
Well, but I say, join B.B. King
Baby if you really want to be loved
Aw, my time is gone
Babe and I really must say goodbye
Aw, my time is gone
Babe and I really must say goodbye
So you women better watch out
I must have that wife before I die
