

Baccara, Don't Play Me A Symphony

Baccara
Miscellaneous
Don't Play Me A Symphony
Don't play me a symphony
A simple song will do

Diamond rings
Sparkling bright
Gold and silver things
Candle lights
But i wish you bought
Real light
One day you understand
The meaning in my eyes

Don't play me a symphony
A simple song will do
Don't buy me no jewellery
Won't make my dreams
Come true
Fancy cloths i never wore
And books i never read
All i want is your
Love is all i need

Don't play me a symphony
I'd rather hear a song
Harm a note and melody
So i can harm along
Love is all i have to give
And love is all i need
All i want is your
Love is all i need

Sympathy is not allowed
When you talk to me
You don't shout
If you gave more
More of your life
I could easily
One day be your wife.

Don't play me a symphony
A simple song will do
Don't buy me no jewellery
Won't make my dreams
Come true
Fancy cloths i never wore
And books i never read
All i want is your
Love is all i need

Don't play me a symphony
So i can harm along
All i want is your
Love is all i need

Love is all i have to give
All i want is your

Love is all i need
