Baccara, Don't Play Me A Symphony

Baccara Miscellaneous Don't Play Me A Symphony Don't play me a symphony A simple song will do

Diamond rings
Sparkling bright
Gold and silver things
Candle lights
But i wish you bought
Real light
One day you understand
The meaning in my eyes

Don't play me a symphony A simple song will do Don't buy me no jewellery Won't make my dreams Come true Fancy cloths i never wore And books i never read All i want is your Love is all i need

Don't play me a symphony I'd rather hear a song Harm a note and melody So i can harm along Love is all i have to give And love is all i need All i want is your Love is all i need

Sympathy is not allowed When you talk to me You don't shout If you gave more More of your life I could easily One day be your wife.

Don't play me a symphony A simple song will do Don't buy me no jewellery Won't make my dreams Come true Fancy cloths i never wore And books i never read All i want is your Love is all i need

Don't play me a symphony I'd rather hear a song Harm a note and melody So i can harm along Love is all i have to give And love is all i need All i want is your Love is all i need

Love is all i have to give And love is all i need All i want is your Love is all i need
