

Baccara, For You

For you, for only you
I'd like to do so much I'd need a lifetime.
Time and space will end dear
And then surrender to me for you.

With you, with only you
You know it's true I won't survive without you.
When I'm on my own some
I feel so lonesome and long for you.

(Refrain):
Maybe I'm only a little lonely,
Maybe I'm yearning too much for your touch.
Maybe I'm mental, so sentimental,
Maybe illusions, confusions of love.

For me, for only me
You'll always be the one I owe my dreams to.
I'll be always there for
And always care for, only for you.
