

Baccara, Sorry I'm A Lady

Ooh here comes that man again
Something in the way he moves makes me sorry I'm a lady

Hello stranger, you're a danger
To the law and over here
They don't like men like you in our city
You're too pretty, cool and witty
You are real bad company
I should have stayed away from today

Chorus
Sorry I'm a lady, sorry I'm a lady
I would rather be, rather be
Just a little shady, just a little shady
Nothin' dynamite, dynamite
Sorry I'm a lady, sorry I'm a lady
Have you got a light, got a light
For me tonight

I need power, I need passion
Give me more than sympathy
I've got a lot to learn before tomorrow
Like a flower, want a shower
I want you to make me bloom
Those gentlemen in gray can hear me say

Chorus Repeat
You are a winner, I am a sinner
No excuse, no alibi
Temptation's won the game and you are to blame

Chorus Repeat To Fade
