

Backstreet Boys, Love Will Keep You Up All Night

I won't tell nobody, I'll just scream it in my mind
Nothing good in life is scripted
It's not like we predicted
That the one you want is gonna be the one you thought
I won't tell nobody but I won't live like a prisoner
Nothing has to be so perfect, can you tell me was it worth it?
Because a heart can't lie and even though a face may try
Love can keep you up all night
'Cause love will keep you up all night
There's nothing that you can't decide
One day you're all alone and next you're crying on the phone
Love will keep you up all night
You've got a taste of sweet divine, took you to the other side
Love will keep you up all night
If I don't tell a living soul but still everyone would know, yes he would
It's always 3 a.m. somewhere
You know it when you get there
Some people try to cover it up
Some people think it's never enough
Oh, love will keep you up all night
This no such thing that you can't decide
One day you're all alone and next you're crying on the phone
Love will keep you up all night
You've got a taste of sweet divine, it took you to the other side
Oh, love will keep you up all night, oh
I don't mean to scare you but everybody has a first time
One day when you're old and gray
Don't look back and ever say, you should have tried
Stayin' up all night
Love will keep you up all night
There's something that you can't decide
One day you're all alone and next you're crying on the phone
Love will keep you up all night
You've got a taste of sweet divine, it took you to the other side
Oh, love will keep you up all night
This no such thing that you can't decide
One day you're all alone and next you're crying, you're crying
Got a taste of sweet divine, it took you to the other side
Love will keep you up all night
Love will keep you up all night
Love will keep you up all night
