Backstreet Boys, Siberia

"When you come back, I won't be here" She said, and gently pulled me near " If you wanna talk, you can call And no, it's not your fault" I just smiled and said, "Let go of me" Now there's somethin', I just gotta know Did someone else steal my part? She said, "It's not my fault" Then my heart did time in Siberia Was waitin' for the lie to come true 'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious When the one you want doesn't want you too I was driftin' in between, like I was On the outside lookin' in, yeah In my dreams, you are still here Like you've always been Oh yeah, my heart did time in Siberia Was waitin' for the lie to come true 'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious When the one you want, doesn't want you too (Want you) I gave myself away completely But you just couldn't see me Though, I was sleepin' in your bed 'Cause someone else was on your mind And in your head When I came back, she wasn't there Just a note left on the stairs "If you wanna talk Give me a call" Heart did time in Siberia (Oh, yeah) Was waiting for the lie to come true 'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious (So dark, and mysterious) When the one you want, doesn't want you too (When the one that you want, doesn't want you) My heart did time in Siberia (Siberia, yeah, yeah) Was waitin' for the lie to come true (I'm waitin', I'm waitin')

'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious

When the one you want, doesn't want you too

When the one you want doesn't want you too
