

Bakermat, Living (ft. Alex Clare)

Stuck in a rut you can't get out
There's too much causing you doubt
No cash, no job, no self-esteem
Me I'm takin' and I'm givin'

If you got a head you should use it
Opportunity, don't want to lose it
Climb over the walls, break down all the doors
When your future calls
Don't let nothing hold you down
Nothing hold you down, down
Don't let nothing hold you down
Nothing hold you down, down

Just surviving and living
Just surviving and living
Just surviving

Stuck in a rut you can't get out
There's too much causing you doubt
No cash, no job, no self-esteem
Me I'm takin' and I'm givin'

They may wreck your dreams if you let 'em
Keep them goals in sight, don't forget 'em
Keep your head up high, yes the future's bright
Keep your head up high

Don't let nothing hold you down
Nothing hold you down, down
Don't let nothing hold you down
Nothing hold you down, down

Just surviving and living
Just surviving and living
Just surviving
Just surviving
