Bananarama, I'm Waiting

Is it my imagination
Is there something you wanna say
Cause it feels so strange
When you look at me that way

And I can't deny I see the signs They only point one way

Do you feel like lovin' me
Don't let me hear you say
If you feel like lovin' me
Say it now, say it now, say my name
Cause I'm waiting, I'm waiting, I'm waiting for you
So tell me you want me the way I want you

Wanna feel your kiss upon my lips As sweet as any love Raining down on me Like honey from above, yeah

And I don't know why But every time This voice inside me says

Do you feel like lovin' me Don't let me hear you say If you feel like lovin' me Say it now, say it now, say my name Cause I'm waiting, I'm waiting for you So tell me you want me the way I want you

Who's walked down the mountain They're afraid to fall But with you I hear the music And it fills my soul

I'm waiting for you I'm waiting for you I'm waiting for you

Do you feel like lovin' me
Don't let me hear you say
If you feel like lovin' me
Say it now, say it now, say my name
Cause I'm waiting, I'm waiting, I'm waiting for you
So tell me you want me the way I want you
